CANNON DENIES HE IS CZAR AND DEFENDS HOUSE RULES

Speaker of House of Representatives Asnwers Critics With Sarcastic Remarks.

PRAISES THE PRESIDENT

Declares Again if Cummins and La Follette Are Republicans He Is Not.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the House of Representatives, answered his critics with a defense of the present rules of the House and denied that the speaker was a czar in a speech here tonight.

Mr. Cannon spoke in favor of W. J. Moxley, Republican candidate to succeed William Lorimer, recently elected senator, as congressman from the Sixth district of Illinois.

Mr. Cannon sarcastically paid his respects to Senator Cummins of Iowa and Congressman Champ Clark of Missouri, leader of the house minority. President Taft, however, was praised for his defense of the new tariff law in his speech at Winona, Minn.

Mr Cannon took as the text for his speech the following utterance from one of the campaign speeches of Dr. Carl Barnes, the independent Republican candidate to succeed Mr. Lorimer.

"If elected on November 23 I shall join the 'insurgents' and do everything in my power to down Cannon."

Mr Cannon started with a defense of the present House rules and stated emphatically that the House was ruled by the majority. He denied that the speaker had the powers of a czar. He said the speaker was controlled by the majority, and especially at the time of his election. He also said that an active majority was an excellent thing in the House

According to Mr Cannon, Senator Cummins complained that no information had been placed before Congress in the recent tariff revision Mr. Cannon fol . . . that there had been cartloads of information for any . . . who wanted to make use of it, and added:

"There has been no way discovered by which information can be put in a man's skull without any industry on his part"

A denial of the charges that he had read either Senator La Follette or Senator Cummins out of the Republican party, was entered by Mr. Cannon.

"What I did say," said Mr. Cannon, "was that if Cummins or La Follette were Republicans then I was not."

In speaking of Champ Clark Mr. Cannon said

"We all like Champ Clark, but what he does not know about ad valorem duties, schedules and parliamentary laws would make a large library. But he is an expert on chautauquas."

Mr. Cannon advised the electors to vote for the Democratic candidate, Frank S. Ryan, if they decided not to vote for Moxley

MRS. STETSON'S SCIENCE OF THE WRONG SORT

New York Leader of Christian Scientists Excommunicated by Mother Church Directors.

BOSTON Nov 18 – An order of excommunication against Mrs. Augusta E Stetson of New York, for years regarded as one of the most prominent and powerful members of the Christian Science denomination, was issued today by the board of directors of the mother church of this city, the supreme authority of the organization

The directors express their conviction of the truth of the charges against Mrs Stetson, namely, that she had worked against the interests of the church and of members who were not her followers and that she had persisted in teachings and practices contrary to Christian Science.

Excommunication is rarely resorted to in the Christian Science church, and in view of Mrs Stetson's prominence today's action was regarded as most drastic

Mrs Stetson formerly was first reader of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of New York city, and until her suspension today was pastor emeritus of that church at a salary of $5,000 a year. In answer to a summons Mrs Stetson on Monday appeared before the board of directors. The session was secret The conferences continued three days being concluded yesterday, and Mrs Stetson returned to New York last night

DENVER, Nov. 18.—A. S. Hughes, general traffic manager, and Fred Wild Jr general freight agent, of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, left today under hurried orders for San Francisco for a conference with C H Schlacks, vice president and general manager of the Western Pacific This has led to the rumor in railroad circles that Mr Hughes is to be made traffic director of both roads with headquarters in Denver.

DARING EXPLORERS ENTER BURNING MINE

SHAFT SEAL IS REMOVED AND FIRE ATTACKED.

One Body Brought to Surface and Others Located—Dead Lie in Heaps.

CHERRY, Ill., Nov. 18—With the recovery of one body, believed to be that of Ole Frieberg, the locating of 19 others, that could not be rescued, near the ventilating shaft, and a determined attack on the fire through the main pit, the work of reaching the 300 bodies in the St. Paul mine progressed rapidly today.

The air shaft, following the daring exploration that resulted in the location of 20 dead, was closed and a full stream of water was directed into it. Then the main shaft was attacked. The temperature of this shaft has been well over 100 degrees, but continuous sprinkling today reduced it to about 90 degrees.

When the canvas and sand with which the pit had been closed were removed a cloud of steam rolled out, but it was only a puff. Men in helmets first descended to the fatal second gallery. They reported the mouth of the drift badly blocked by timbers and mud, but the fact that their safety lamps were not extinguished indicated the absence of black damp.

The next squad to descend went without helmets and reported conditions perfect for an attack on the flames within the gallery. Great difficulty was experienced in lowering a sufficient length of hose pipe 318 feet—into the pit, and it was nearly midnight before success crowned efforts in this direction. The great weight of the big tubes repeatedly broke from the tackle hook, and valuable time was lost.

Various crews made the descent. They reported little heat at the mouth of the gallery, but declared search for bodies would not be practicable until the blocked opening had been cleared of debris. This promised to be a tedious process.

Beyond these obstructions the dead are believed to lie in heaps as they fell in their last despairing rush for the shaft.

National guardsmen patrolled an area roped off about the shaft, but against the barriers anxious men, women and children pressed far into the night.

EDITOR GILDER DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Stricken When Delivering a Lecture on November 3 Subsequent Rally of Short Duration.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18—Richard Watson Gilder, editor-in-chief of the Century magazine since its foundation in 1881, and widely known as an author and lecturer, died unexpectedly tonight of angina pectoris at the house of his sister, Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer

Mr. Gilder was taken ill during the delivery of a lecture on "Tennyson" before the Young Men's Christian association of Orange, N. J, Wednesday, November 3.

On the way home he collapsed but managed first to summon assistance from New York by telephone.

Mr. Gilder was up and about the following day, though he still suffered occasional seizures of sharp pains. His physicians, on the second diagnosis, realized that his malady was grave but they did not acquaint Mr. Gilder with the truth.

This morning Mr Gilder was resting easily. No fears for him were felt and at noon his wife left the house. Shortly after 1 o'clock she was recalled by an urgent message.

Dr Joseph Collins and Dr. Theodore Janeway were called in consultation with Dr. Hodgeson and it was realized that Mr. Gilder had only a few hours to live. He suffered great pain and opiates were administered freely. The end came at 6 o'clock

Richard Watson Gilder early showed his bent for letters Born at Bordentown, N J, in 1844, one of eight children, he was writing, setting the type for and publishing the St. Thomas Register at Flushing, L I, when 12 years old. Four years later he united with two young colleagues in the production of a campaign newspaper supporting Bell and Everett for presidential honors His interest in politics carried him into the great civic struggle then raging, and while still in his teens he enlisted with Landis' Philadelphia battery and served in the campaign of 1863 when Pennsylvania was invaded by Confederate forces

When Scribner's monthly was started absorbing "Hours at Home, Mr Gilder found himself at the age of 26 in a position of honor and high literary influence For 11 years he was managing editor of Scribner's under Dr Holland and after Dr Holland's death Mr Gilder became in 1881, editor-in-chief of the Century magazine, a position he held until his death

Mr. Gilder published six books of verse among which are sonnets and lyrics which have been rated by critics as sure to pass into the heritage of the language

TAFT'S IRE IS AROUSED BY ACT OF NICARAGUA

In Peremptory Note Our President Demands Complete and Satisfactory Explanation of Execution of Two Americans.

REVOLUTIONISTS ARE PRACTICALLY RECOGNIZED

Determination Reached to Exert Moral Suasion at Least With View of Bringing Central American States to a Realization of Their Responsibilities.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Nov. 18.—Cannon and Grace, the Americans, who were executed for complicity in the rebellion, were tried at a fair court martial held under the direction of the government.

The men, it was charged, were responsible for placing dynamite mines which were intended to blow up government steamers laden with troops which entered the river at Merrytown.

One of the mines planted by Cannon and Grace exploded 15 yards from the steamer Diamante.

When Cannon and Grace were captured they had with them dynamite machines and other accessories for blowing up vessels. The men confessed their guilt to the authorities and also in letters to their families.

Previously, Cannon had taken part in a revolutionary movement against Nicaragua from Honduras, where he was imprisoned for several months.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Announcement that this government is tired of the high-handed action of the small Central American republics practically was contained in a dispatch sent late today to the Bluefields Steamship company, which sought protection of the state department from injustice by insurgents now operating against President Zelaya.

An hour later a peremptory note, couched in diplomatic language but none the less direct, was delivered to Senor Felipe Rodriguez, charge d'affaires of the Nicaraguan legation, demanding a complete and satisfactory explanation of the execution of two Americans, Leonard Grace and Leroy Cannon, who were killed by order of Zelaya when they were found in the . . .

Pending a satisfactory explanation of the occurrence, President Taft has refused to recognize Isidore Hazera, the new Nicaraguan minister.

Mr. Taft is thoroughly aroused by the actions of the Zelayan government and apparently is determined to make the lives of American citizens much safer and considerably more respected in Central America than they have been hitherto.

The Bluefields Steamship company's regular steamer was about to set sail for Bluefields, Nicaragua, with a miscellaneous cargo, counted in which were a number of rifles and other munitions of war, when warning was given by agents of the Nicaraguan insurrectionary forces that the vessel would be liable to seizure. The steamship company promptly called on the state department to declare the protection this government would give in such cases.

Will Watch Blockade.

The answer was the result of a conference between the President and the secretary of state and carried full weight. It gave the steamship concern no encouragement and practically recognized the revolutionary forces operating against the Zelayan administration, a proceeding for which there probably is no parallel in the government records

The dispatch, directed to the steamship company at New Orleans and signed 'Knox secretary of state,' read

"If the announced blockade or investment of the Nicaraguan port of San Juan Del Norte (Greytown) is effectively maintained and the requirements of international law, including warning to approaching vessels, are observed, this government would not be disposed to interfere to prevent its enforcement. A naval vessel will be ordered to Greytown to observe and report whether the blockade is effective."

Nicaragua has been one of the Central American republics that has given this government more trouble than any other, save, perhaps, Venezuela, under the sway of President Castro.

The attitude of the United States, as shown by its apparent recognition of the Nicaraguan insurgents, indicated to diplomats that this government would welcome the overthrow of the present administration there. It is well known that President Zelaya's attitude toward Americans and American interests has been anything but satisfactory.

. . . Taft and Secretary Knox practically have decided on the exertion of some forceful moral . . . if nothing . . . with a view of bringing the Central American . . . to a realization of their responsibilities.

Aside from the acknowledgement that a demand has been made on the Nicaraguan legation for a detailed report of the killing of the two Americans, the state department declined to discuss the existing crisis.

Execution Indefensible.

The execution of the Americans is held here to be indefensible. In the absence of complete details this government is reserving judgment, but if the men were captured in the ranks of the enemy with arms in their hands, they were entitled to military trial, under international law. It is inconceivable to officials here that either man was acting as a spy, for their nationality would preclude their succeeding in such work.

While no orders have been issued for the dispatch of war vessels other than the Des Moines and the Vicksburg to observe conditions on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, there are plenty of vessels in Caribbean waters that can be sent to the scene on the shortest notice, while there are other vessels within call on the Pacific coast It is evident that the temper of the administration has been thoroughly aroused, and if occasion warrants the state department may take drastic action.

Last year Minister Coolidge resigned and returned from Greytown, the Nicaraguan capital. It was given out then that Mr. Coolidge returned merely because of ill health, but it eventually was learned that he practically was forced to withdraw in order to save his dignity and preserve the standing of this government. Since then there has been no diplomatic connection between the two governments of the last few hours. There legation here

Attaches of the legation declined today to make any comment. The new minister, Senor Hazera, naturally refused to discuss it, as his credentials had been waived aside at the White House, because of the developments of the last few hours. There was an air of genuine anxiety about the legation, however, and from appearance the diplomats regarded the situation as grave.

Seizure of Dictator.

SIX INSPECTORS ARE DISMISSED

CLEANSING THE NEW YORK CUSTOMS HOUSE.

House Cleaning Commission Appointed by Collector Loeb to Reorganize the Service.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18—The expected shakeup in the New York customs house as a result of the sugar fraud exposures, began today with the abrupt dismissal of six suspected employes by Collector Loeb

At the same time came the announcement that a house cleaning commission of eight customs experts whose integrity is unquestioned has been appointed by Collector Loeb to take up the work of "making the New York customs house a model for the entire country."

Although the names of the six men dismissed today were not given out, Mr. Loeb said that all were customs inspectors. Four were formerly assistant weighers on the sugar docks and are now under charges being investigated by Henry L. Stimson, special counsel for the government

The direct reason for the dismissal of the other two inspectors was said by Collector Loeb to be their acceptance recently of tips from steamer passengers.

According to reports, more than 50 other employes are to be ousted within a few days.

The new commission, which is expected to devise a scheme of re-organization for the customs administration at the port of New York, is headed by John C Williams, deputy collector, and Mark P Andrews, a member of Mr Loeb's personal board of legal counsel The other members represent all the important departments of the customs service They are John J Raszkiewicz, deputy surveyor William Sprague, deputy collector George C Smythe member of the United States civil service board Mathew M Coneys deputy surveyor and John C Hathorn and Stephen W. S Tennett, deputy appraisers.

WASHINGTON, Nov 18—Unclassified laborers in the New York customs house, files of the civil service commission show, were put to work as sugar samplers between 1899 and 1902 in contravention of law, those positions being in the classified service To what extent this was done is not disclosed On August 28 1902 the civil service commission called the matter to the attention of Leslie M Shaw then secretary of the treasury

ASTOR'S YACHT SIGHTED?

Captain of Fruit Steamer Saw a Vessel Which He Believes Was the Nourmahal

NEW YORK Nov 18—Some assurance that Col Jacob Astor's yacht Nourmahal, which has been missing in West Indian waters for 10 days, safely outrode the recent hurricane was brought here today by Capt J Durie of the steamship Anneta which arrived with fruit from Jamaican ports

Captain Durie reported that on Sunday November 14, he sighted a boat which he believed to be the Nourmahal riding at anchor in the reef harbor at Hawks Nest San Salvador, the island Columbus made famous by his landing in 1492

Colonel Astor's friends here were inclined to doubt that the yacht seen by Captain Durie was the Nourmahal, as San Salvador is nearly 200 miles north of the region where Colonel Astor planned to cruise

EGGS SOMETIMES INJURIOUS

Eggs are generally regarded as a most nourishing diet, particularly for invalids and the aged. They contain every element of nutrition, as milk does, though in different proportion, yet they are sometimes injurious. If the motor activity of the stomach is weak or if intestinal digestion is weak, or the demand for nourishment only slight, with weak elimination, injury necessarily results. Putrefaction occurs under any of these conditions, the poisonous products, of which are absorbed more or less, and carried to every part of the body, producing bilious headache and other symptoms of auto-intoxication.

The best way to cook eggs is by poaching. But the best way to eat them, especially for the invalid, is after a thorough whipping, and with a little . . . toasted white bread.

CHILE IS REBUKED BY UNITED STATES

U. S. MINISTER RECALLED FROM SANTIAGO.

Critical Stage Reached in Negotiations Over Alsop Claim, Pending 35 Years.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Alsop claim against Chile for more than a million dollars, which has been pending 35 years, has reached a critical stage.

Mr Dawson, American minister to Chile, is now on his way to Washington, having left Mr. Pierpont in charge of legation, and it is not improbable that if the Chilean government does not consent to a final settlement within the next few days or agree to a protocol for reference of the claim to The Hague court the American legation in Santiago will be closed and its archives placed in the hands of the American consul for safe keeping. Intimation to this effect has been given to Minister Cruz, representing the Chilean government in Washington.

This action is not to be taken as a formal severance of diplomatic relations with that country and it is not probable that Chile will withdraw her minister from Washington

No ultimatum has been given Chile but this government's purpose in withdrawing its diplomatic representatives from that country is in the way of a protest against interminable delays concerning this claim. It develops that only a week or ten days ago Minister Dawson entered into an agreement with the Chilean foreign office as to the form of a protocol for a reference of the Alsop claim to The Hague tribunal. The Chilean government, however, refused to comply with the conditions agreed upon and in effect repudiated its own foreign office.

FATHER ASSUMES ALIAS TO SAVE SON FROM PRISON

Colorado Convict Is Identified as Slayer of Sheriff Larkin in Nevada.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—By intercepting letters between W. G. Barr of this city and his son, Charles, now serving a sentence in the Colorado penitentiary for robbing a street car in Pueblo, Detective Redmond of the local police department has identified the son as the murderer of Deputy Sheriff William Larkin, who was shot to death in Humboldt, Nev., last year, and has revealed what is probably the only case on record where a father has assumed an alias to save his son from prison.

The elder Barr has been operating a real estate business here under the name of W. G. Southern. When the police of Pueblo sought to identify the man whom they had arrested there for robbery, Redmond was informed that his father lived here, and search established the fact that Southern was an alias for Barr.

TAFT IS ON THE SEA

President Takes Boat for Norfolk to Attend Deep Waterway Convention.

WASHINGTON, Nov 18.—President Taft, accompanied by Mrs Taft and a party of friends, sailed on the yacht Mayflower at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Norfolk, Va, where he will be the guest of honor at the convention of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways association.

A special guard of marines was drawn up when the presidential party went aboard, and as soon as the President stepped up the gangway the pennant of the chief executive was broken out. As the vessel headed for the open Mr. Taft stood on the after deck bowing his acknowledgements to the crowd that had gathered.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov 18.—An inland water route from New England to Florida, especially for torpedo boats, destroyers and submarines, with ample bends for destroyers 295 feet in length, together with the adequate fortification of the Capes of Virginia, is absolutely essential for the effective protection of the Atlantic coast in the event of war.

This is the declaration of Rear Admiral C. S. Sperry, U. S. N., retired, made here today in an address before the Deeper Waterways association. Admiral Sperry said that in the present undefended state of entrance to Chesapeake bay this line of waterways could be cut in two and absolutely blockaded by an enemy.

STATE'S RIGHTS INVOLVED

Railroad Commissioners Demand Change in Esch Bill Relating to Accidents.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The feeling of resentment on the part of some state railroad commissioners against what they term the wish of the interstate commerce commission to "hog" all supervision over railroads reached a climax at the conference of the National Association of Railway Commissioners today when the convention was asked to approve the Esch bill of the last Congress to empower the interstate commerce commission to investigate all accidents on railroads engaged in interstate commerce.

Commissioner Earle of South Carolina led in the denunciation of the bill. The discussion finally resulted in Mr. Clark of the interstate commerce commission and Commissioner Burr of Florida offering a suggestion that the bill be approved, if amended so as to specify it was in no way to interfere with the right of the states.

This course was pursued.

INDICTMENTS FOUND

Federal Grand Jury at Denver Submits Partial Report of Its Findings.

DENVER, Nov. 18.—The federal grand jury today made a partial report to Judge R. E. Lewis, covering its work of the last two weeks. The cases involving alleged land frauds, illegal fencing of lands, violation of internal revenue laws and other offenses, will be handled in a second report. Among the principal indictments today are the following:

Charles Stevens, Cañon City, robbing a drop box at the postoffice; D. O. Button, Newcastle postmaster, shortage of $1,700 in his accounts; Candida Recla, Leadville, forging money order on Francisca Recla, a blind man who was in a Denver hospital; Antonio Trevino, Pueblo, passing counterfeit coins in saloons; Jose Servantez, Pueblo, accomplice of Trevino; Charles W. Dakin, weigher at Denver mine, embezzlement of gold from the mint; Giuseppe Luccis, Walsenburg, passing counterfeit money; Erick Sankala, Telluride, passing counterfeit quarters.

The grand jury today returned an indictment against Ora Haley, millionaire Wyoming stockman, charging him with unlawfully fencing government lands. Haley's headquarters are at Cheyenne, but the land in question is in the western part of the state.

IRISH COMMONER ENTHUSIASTIC OVER AMERICA'S SUPPORT OF ERIN'S CAUSE

T. P. O'Connor at the left and the members of the Chicago reception committee. At the top is P. J. Reynolds, at the right, Daniel Scully, and below, J. T. Cahill.

(By T. P. O'Connor.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov 19.—Ireland will be free in 1924. I wish my pen had power to convey to my readers my sense of the extraordinary personality of M. J. Ryan, who presided at our monster eastern meeting and of the other men who are aiding our cause. The Boston meeting and my seeing M. J. Ryan recalls an incident in the life of Lloyd-George. When Lloyd-George went to Birmingham during the Boer war 100,000 men in the mob had sworn to lynch him, and they would have done so. His only method of escape was to put on a tunic and helmet of a police officer and leave the hall in the midst of a body of police.

As he emerged to the street a great blaze of electric light suddenly fell upon his face. Another Welshman, but an enemy and one of the mob that wanted to kill him, caught sight of him. This Welshman recognized under the helmet and in spite of the police tunic the wonderful eyes of Lloyd-George—brilliant and expressive, with a yell he pointed him out to the mob. Fortunately the informer was disbelieved and was kicked into the gutter and Lloyd-George was able to escape. M. J. Ryan would be similarly detected under any disguise, his eyes would betray him.

In his native Philadelphia, Ryan's hold over his own people is irresistible. They have something approaching fanaticism in their admiration for him; he is deserving their attachment. Brilliant, clever, impressive, a moving orator, with a clear [illegible] mind, great courage and self-devotion that is equal to any call upon it, a combination of extraordinary tact and extraordinary temper of revolt when he is confronted by the meanness of disloyalty. M. J. Ryan is a man made to rule men.

The Boston meeting is an excellent illustration of the way money is being raised in the United States. In the midst of the scene, wild, turbulent, inspiring, touching, there suddenly came a remarkable episode. Ryan's face had been glowing for half an hour as he saw the wonderful tide rolling up to him from this tremendous audience, but suddenly he stopped, and there came over his face a look of even greater triumph than anything that had yet appeared there.

"This," he said, as he ran his eye over a small bit of paper, "this is splendid."

Then he paused, I think really because he was too moved to find utterance, and then he read out this remarkable document: "Mary G. Fitzpatrick $100." Then Ryan paused, and there was a cheer, and then he read next:

"Bessie S. Fitzpatrick, $100."

Another pause, another big cheer, then—

"Francis M. Fitzpatrick $100." Then "Paul E. Fitzpatrick $100," and then "Thomas M. Fitzpatrick $100."

It was the wife, the children, boys and girls of Thomas B. Fitzpatrick, joining the husband and father, who is the treasurer of the organization, in doing their share for the good cause.

"I wish," said Ryan, "my friend Fitzpatrick had more children," and the audience laughed, and cheered, and cheered, and laughed yet again.

INQUIRY OPENS AT SEATTLE

Investigation of Alaska Coal Land Filings Begun by a Special Commissioner.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 18.—The opening session of the inquiry into the filings on the 300 coal claims in the Katalla district of Alaska, known as the Cunningham group, which began here this afternoon before Special Commissioner William McGee of the general land office, was devoted to the introduction of stipulations and documentary exhibits.

Attorneys for the government decline to say what witnesses they will call and there is much speculation as to whether L. R. Glavis, former chief of the field division of the general land office at Seattle, will be called.

Prior to his removal from office by Secretary Ballinger, Mr Glavis had charge of the investigation that brought about the present inquiry.

TOWN MOVES SIX MILES

From the Portland Oregonian.

The city of Brownsville, which has stood on the records here six miles distant from its real location for 45 years, now has the same legal and actual location. Judge William Galloway granted a decree to reform the plat of the city and to correct errors which, though slight, made a tremendous difference in the legal location of the town.

The original town of Brownsville was laid out in the late fifties by Capt. James Blakely, who is yet living at Brownsville at the age of 96 years, being the oldest man in Linn county. Some mistakes were made by the surveyor who platted the site and when the plat was recorded in the court house here in 1864 the clerk placed the letter "E" instead of the letter "W" in the starting point of the description, thus tying the plat to the northeast instead of the northwest corner of the township, and getting the town located six miles distant from its real site, or just north of the town of Crawfordsville.

STAY IS GRANTED

Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison Are Permitted to Eat Thanksgiving Dinner at Their Homes.

WASHINGTON, Nov 18—The court of appeals of the District of Columbia today granted a stay until November 29 of the issuance of the mandate sending President Gompers, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, to jail for contempt of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, in the Buck's Stove and Range case.

Chief Justice Shepard stated that if the labor leaders had, by November 29, the day the supreme court of the United States reconvenes, filed in that court a petition for certiorari, a further stay of the mandate would, on application, be granted pending the determination by the higher tribunal of the application

TORONTO, Ont, Nov 18.—Cheers greeted the announcement made by President Gompers in the convention of the American Federation of Labor, today, that a stay had been granted in the matter of the mandate sending Mitchell, Morrison and himself to jail.

"We may be able to eat our Thanksgiving dinners at home, after all," remarked President Gompers.

TOO MUCH LABOR POLITICS

American Federation of Labor Asked to Aid in Adjusting Controversy in Chicago.

TORONTO, Ont, Nov. 18—A resolution declaring that the International Association of Machinists permitted its members to take the places of union elevator constructors on strike for higher wages in Chicago, and asking that the machinists immediately withdraw these men from such employment, plunged the convention of the American Federation of Labor today into a debate in which it was declared that as a result of too much labor politics the labor movement in Chicago demands purification The convention voted to investigate the controversy

Amalagamation of the International Union of Elevator Constructors with the International Association of Machinists was recommended

President James McConnell of the Machinists association declared that "the machinery of the country is reeking with nonunionists " and appealed to the building trades department of the federation "to assist the machinists in their efforts to unionize their product."

ANTI-SALOON ISSUE FORCED IN CHICAGO

LEAGUE'S NATIONAL CONVENTION TO BE HELD THERE.

How War Against Liquor Traffic Is Being Waged in All Parts of the Country.

By Frederic J. Haskin.

The thirteenth national convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America will meet in Chicago on Monday, December 6, the same day Congress convenes in Washington. For a week before the assembling of the convention the superintendents and field workers of the league will be in conference preparing campaign plans to be submitted to the national body The determination of the Illinois league to force the anti-saloon issue to a finish fight in Chicago will provide a local interest greater than ever before aroused by such a convention The reports of the officers of the league, covering the two years since the last convention, will show a wonderful advancement of the work undertaken by the organization

The Anti-Saloon league is a remarkable institution It is the most potent organization in politics, outside of the regular political parties, ever known in the United States It is avowedly and openly a political institution, yet it has so localized its activities that it works with either or both of the two principal parties, as its best interests dictate It does not hesitate to change from Republican to Democratic overnight, and sometimes it forces both parties to accept its men and measures. The league, by the adoption of these tactics, has had much to do with the growing tendency to settle local political battles without regard to national issues

Federation of Churches.

Powerful as it has become the Anti-Saloon league is not, strictly speaking an organization In the language of its general superintendent, the Rev Purley A Baker "It is a league of organizations It is the federated church in action against the saloon Its agents are of the churches, and under all circumstances loyal to the church It has no interest apart from the church It goes just as fast and just as far as the public sentiment of the church will permit It has not come to the kingdom simply to build a little local sentiment, or to assure the passage of a few laws, nor yet to vote the saloons from a few hundred towns. These are mere incidents in its progress It has come to solve the liquor question "

While the Anti-Saloon league does not represent the churches by virtue of any ecclesiastical authority it is nevertheless true that the league is in fact a confederation of churches and churchmen opposed to the saloon It is made up altogether of men prominent in the pulpit and in the pews In its political work it often allies itself with political organizations which are distinctly not of the church, and such alliances invite the wholesale condemnation of the opposing alliance between some other political organization and the saloons

Practically all churches are represented in the league The Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Lutherans, Disciples, Universalists Congregationalists, United Brethren and several smaller bodies have indorsed the league by formal action, and have appointed delegates to its councils. The Protestant Episcopal church is represented by Bishop McVicar of Rhode Island who is one of the vice presidents of the national league, and by many clergymen in all parts of the country The Roman Catholic church has no ecclesiastical connection with the league and many of its leaders have opposed the organization in politics The Catholic Total Abstinence union however has a formal alliance with the league Archbishop Ireland was one of the first vice presidents of the national league and the Rev Father James M Cleary of Minneapolis is now a national vice president.

A Factor in Politics.

While there are many leaders, both clerical and lay in all the churches who are compelled by their consciences to oppose the work of the Anti-Saloon league, it remains a fact that this organization more nearly approaches a federation of the churches than ever before has been seen in this country Leaders in the movement declare that those pessimists who weep for the downfall of the church, and who declare that religion has lost its influence, would do well to consider the power manifested by the federated churches in the fight against the saloons Certainly the Anti-Saloon league has proven itself a powerful factor in politics in the past decade

The most remarkable feature of the work of the league, as contrasted with other anti-liquor fights, is that the Anti-Saloon league is not always for prohibition It "goes just as fast and just as far as the public sentiment of the church will permit " For this reason the league sometimes comes into direct opposition to the Prohibitionists. For instance, at this moment the ultra-prohibitionists in Missouri are insisting upon a state-wide referendum vote on the question of absolute prohibition. The Anti-Saloon league leaders are not convinced that Missouri is yet ready for such a radical step, and they are fighting to maintain the present status of the local option law The late Bishop Charles B. Galloway of Mississippi was opposed to state-wide prohibition for a long time, but when the hour came he turned the influence of the Anti-Saloon league in that direction and the state went dry. The Anti-Saloon leaguers are all for prohibition, eventually, but they are willing to take a little bit at a time and to bide a wee.

Use Abolition Tactics

The campaign waged by the Anti-Saloon league is unique in the history of so-called "moral reforms" in that it takes into account the essential value of expediency. The "abolitionists" who fanned the fires of anti-slavery agitation before the war are comparable to the straight-out "prohibitionists" of today. Neither accomplished much in practical results But the issue of the "abolitionists" when adopted by an organization with a regard for expediency resulted in the Republican party

The Anti-Saloon league in one state may be fighting with the regular Republican organization for straight prohibition. Across the border in the next state it may be fighting with the Democratic organization for a county-unit local option bill, saying never a word about prohibition. In one city it may be allied with a "citizens" movement to oust a regular party organization from municipal power. In another it may be allied with one of the regular party machines for fighting for nothing more radical than a tight Sunday "lid" as its issue

It is inevitable that an organization which thus seizes every opportunity to advance any part of its propaganda should make alliances with forces which invite the severe criticism of the opposition, and often of the prohibitionists. It is also inevitable that a movement which has manifested such great power should attract to it a certain type of self-seeking politician whose conduct brings the league into bad odor. The leaders of the Anti-Saloon league say they realize these things but that in their great fight they are willing to accept aid from any source. What the league wants is results

Nine States "All Dry."

At the convention in Chicago the principal feature on the program will be the call of the states. The names of the states will be called in alphabetical order, and the league workers from each will report the progress of the campaign in his balliwick Nine states will report "all dry." Of these Tennessee, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi voted out the saloons as the direct result of the campaign waged by the league From every state in the union the league workers will report victory in the majority of battles in which the organization has engaged Twenty-three governors of states, half of all the governors in the union, are committed in part or in whole to the support of the league More than half the people of the United States live in prohibition territory, and a great deal more than half of the land area of the country is "dry," so far as the legal sale of alcoholic beverages is concerned During the two years since the last meeting of the national league, the organization has won political victories of one sort and another in every state, and in the whole country, has won more than three-fourths of the fights in which it has engaged

A striking feature of the propaganda of the organization is that in its fight on the saloons, it devotes more argument to the economic and political phases of the question than to the so-called moral issues The evils resulting from the control of political machines by the saloons and the economic losses involved in the business are dwelt upon while there is not nearly so much said about "drunkards and 'horrible examples '

May Make National Fight.

Thus far the league has done very little in national politics It has been fighting for certain federal legislation and has put congress on notice that it must sooner or later deal with the question of prohibition for the District of Columbia If the league should take up an active campaign in favor of the proposed legislation by which congress resigns to the states the right to regulate interstate shipments of liquors, then the fight will become national At this time the leaders of the league are divided in opinion as to whether or not the time has come to enter the national field as an aggressive political force

Interests opposed to the Anti-Saloon league and organizations fighting in politics are confident that the league is at the hightide of its power and influence It is believed that an area of reaction will follow the prohibition wave, and that the saloons will come back to the towns from whence they have been driven The leaguers declare that the hopes of the opposition are groundless, and that the league is stronger and more potent today than ever before

Whether one believes in prohition or not whether one believes in sumptuary legislation or not, whether one believes that "blind tigers" are worse than licensed saloons or not, whatever one may believe with relation to the issues revolving about the saloon the meeting of the National Anti-Saloon league in Chicago is fraught with interest to every American

WM. MARTINDALE DEAD

Prominent Kansas Man, Well-Known Here, Passes Away at His Home in Emporia.

Colorado Springs of William Martindale, one of the most prominent men in business and politics in Kansas some years ago, have received word of his death at his home in Emporia, Kan. Mr. Marindale was largely interested in real estate and mining properties in and near this city, and was well known in business circles here. He also was largely interested in lands, cattle and banks in Kansas, and at the time of the disastrous failure of the First National bank in Emporia, his home town, and the suicide of the cashier, "Charley" Cross, he spent a large part of his fortune trying to protect the bank's depositors from loss. At various times he held state and other political offices, but preferred rather to be a counselor of others in politics than to hold office himself.

WILL USE FERRETS IN HUNTING RABBITS

George E. Jewett, Thomas Stark and an eastern man who recently brought two trained ferrets to Colorado Springs, expect to go this morning to Mr. Stark's pasture, a few miles south of town, to hunt rabbits with the sleek little animal sleuths. They will take two ferrets on the trip.

Hunting with ferrets is a decidedly new form of sport to Colorado hunters. The tiny animals, smaller than a common house cat, are used merely to drive the rabbits from their burrows. The hunter must be on the alert to catch the game and make the kill when, terrified by the attack of the ferret, the rabbit rushes blindly for the safety of the open. The ferrets are "worked" in a very light harness, to which a long, light cord is attached.

A few hunters went out last Saturday for a trial hunt with the ferrets and were highly pleased with their work. The result of that day's sport was a bag of about a dozen bunnies.

WORK ON NEW ROAD WON'T BE STOPPED

GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION TO TAKE A HAND.

Will See to It, Says Chisholm, That Highway Is Completed Without Interruption.

Work on the new state road between Colorado Springs and Canon City probably will not be stopped April 1 for lack of funds. R. W. Chisholm, vice president of the El Paso County Good Roads association, announced last night that the association will see that the work is not stopped for lack of funds. He says that in case the legislature does not appropriate $5,000 for the continuance of the work, the local association will raise money to keep the convicts now working in Dead Mans canon on the job.

According to Mr. Chisholm, there are now 22 counties in Colorado trying to get the convicts to work on roads within their boundaries, and it would be a severe blow to the good roads enthusiasts who have long been waiting the completion of the new road, to permit these convicts to be transferred elsewhere to work.

Mr. Chisholm conferred yesterday afternoon with the board of county commissioners and announced that the Good Roads association is ready to see that the work is not dropped for lack of money.

SEVERAL SERVICES TODAY

Interest in "Week of Prayer" Continues—Enthusiastic Meetings Held Yesterday.

"Week of Prayer" services continue to be well attended. Yesterday, at the Crystal theater, the Rev. J. H. Franklin spoke on "Christ in the Church," and his remarks were enthusiastically received by the audience. The Baptist Brotherhood had charge of the meeting.

In the De Graff building the meeting under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. was led by Mrs. H. E. Jordan, who spoke on "Associations in Australia." The meeting at Colorado College at 7 o'clock was in charge of Mrs. M. C. Gile.

The Methodist Brotherhood will have charge of the services at the Crystal theater today, at which the Rev. Merle N. Smith will speak on the subject, "Christ in Business. Mrs. H. F. Smith will speak on "Associations in Europe" at the meeting in the De Graff building at 5 o'clock.

Two services will be held at Colorado College today, both in the evening. At one, in Hagerman hall, at 7 o'clock, Philip Gillett, Y. M. C. A. secretary in Korea, will deliver an address; and at the other, at the same hour, in Bemis hall, the Rev. Mr. Smith will speak.

Beginning October 1, the Acacia hotel will be conducted on the American plan. Special rates to those desiring a winter home.

WILL CONSIDER BUDGET

Mayor's Appropriations Are to Be Considered by City Council Today.

Mayor H. F. Avery's budget of appropriations will probably come before the City Council at this morning's meeting. Although there has been considerable criticism of the budget on the part of the commissioners, there is as yet no organized movement to vote it down. The Council must either accept the budget as a whole or refuse it. In the latter case the appropriations made last year under the 20-mill levy would stand for next year.

At a conference with the Mayor yesterday morning, Tom Jones, city sewer inspector, denied emphatically that he had been trying to create any trouble over the abolition of the Saturday half-holiday. He said that he had not been criticising the Mayor or any of the city officials in regard to the change. Mayor Avery is determined to probe the affair to the bottom and has asked a committee of union leaders to appear before the Council this morning and give reasons for protesting against the discontinuance of the half-holiday.

STEREOPTICON LECTURE AT SALVATION ARMY HALL

A stereopticon lecture will be given in Salvation Army hall this evening, the proceeds to assist in securing transportation for Adjutant and Mrs. John Westacott to their next post. A farewell meeting will be held in their honor Sunday evening at which time their next command and their successors will be announced.

WILL GO TO NEW YORK IN A PRIVATE CAR

Mrs. Graham Babcock and daughter, Doris, who will leave soon for New York city, where they will spend the winter, will travel from here in a private car, the "Haslemere," leaving over the Rock Island. The Haslemere was one of the cars on the special train in which President Taft made his recent journey.

Mrs. Babcock and daughter will return to this city about the first of May.

BONBRIGHT SELECTS COMMITTEE MEMBERS

A. N. TAFT AND G. B. FOWLER FOR CHAIRMEN.

Associated Charities Will Conduct Another Red Cross Stamp Sale in December.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Associated Charities Wednesday afternoon, President Irving W. Bonbright announced the appointment of the executive and finance committees which are to serve for the coming year. On the executive committee are: The Rev. A. N. Taft, chairman; G. B. Fowler, Mrs. E. H. Fette, Dr. H. W. Hoagland, President William F. Slocum of Colorado College, Wilfrid M. Hager, Charles B. Hall and Mr. Bonbright, ex-officio. The finance committee is made up of: G. B. Fowler, chairman; Asa T. Jones, Wilfrid M. Hager and one other to be appointed.

The finance committee recently asked for $1,500 from the city and the county, $900 to be given by the city and $600 by the county. The city has since appropriated $750, and the finance committee will ask for a like amount from the county commissioners.

Red Cross Stamps.

As announced several weeks ago in The Gazette, the Associated Charities has secured the right to sell the Red Cross stamps in this section, and they will go on sale about December 6 or 7. Over $900 was realized from that source last year, and the members of the committee are expecting that even a greater amount will be turned into the sanitarium fund from the sale of the stamps this year.

Mr. Bruno, agent of the Associated Charities, stated last night that the plans for the proposed sanitarium will probably be ready by the first week in December.

For the distribution of the Thanksgiving supplies to the poor people of the city, volunteers from the churches will be asked for, and money for the purchase of the supplies is still badly needed.

BROTHERHOOD DINNER

Enjoyable Entertainment at First Methodist Church. Several New Members Admitted.

Members of the Brotherhood of the First Methodist church gave a dinner last night, at which about 165 were present. After the dinner and the business meeting, the Rev. Merle N. Smith made an excellent talk, and a program of music and recitations was given. The committee of arrangements for the dinner was composed of Perry Milligan, L. J. Newsome and R. M. Grindle.

The following members were admitted: Robert Hoppe, B. Z. Winger, Wilmot M. Warner, George S. Elstun, A. E. Ashley, [illegible] Budelier, Howard R. Hull, F. H. Maynard, W. Lierd, T. B. Carrington, Lloyd R. Elliott, Ralph H. Barry and H. W. White. The total membership is now 155.

The supper was served by members of W. C. Johnston's class.

"THE SOUL KISS"

Plenty of Lively Music and Dances Make Show Entertaining; Audience Not Large.

The impression that "The Soul Kiss" is "not for the young person" evidently gained currency enough to affect the size of the audience last night. At any rate the house was considerably smaller than might have been expected. People who like a brisk, snappy musical comedy, with plenty of lively music and dances and a slight touch of the risque, found it decidedly to their liking. It is a big production, carrying more people than are usually sent this far west, elaborately staged and beautifully costumed. The music, by Maurice Levi, is of the kind that everybody remembers and whistles, and the book, by Harry B. Smith, is as good as it needs to be, for after all it is the chorus and the music that make the hit.

The headliner of the attraction is Mlle. Pertina, who succeeded Adeline Genee as premiere danseuse. Her work is good, but by no means unusual. Ben Grinnell, the J. Lucifer Mephisto of the play, has a recitative number, "There Were Actors Then," which deserved more applause than it got. The sleigh-bell ballet in the second act is a clever stunt, even though it is taken bodily from Anna Held's "The Parisian Model."

The Ladies of the Maccabees will give a chicken dinner Saturday evening at the First Christian church for the fitting of a room in the Protestant hospital, also a bazaar Saturday afternoon at Brink's.

CHARLES F. LEWIS GETS JAIL SENTENCE

Charles F. Lewis, who has found considerable trouble in keeping out of jail during the last three months, and who was arrested Monday on a charge of disturbing the peace at the boarding house conducted by his wife, was yesterday sentenced to 60 days in the county jail by Justice A. J. Russell. Lewis, who acted as his own attorney, made a lengthy plea on the stand, asking for leniency on the grounds that he is becoming old and he is losing his ability to work. He stated that he was not welcome at his home, and would get out of town if given the chance. His son, William, who appeared against his father, stated that he had made such promises on four previous occasions, and asked that he be given no leniency. Lewis, who was freed from the county jail Sunday, went to the house of his wife in an intoxicated condition that night, and began to abuse the family. He was arrested 24 hours after leaving jail.

WILLIAMSON ASKS FOR RESTRAINING ORDER

W. W. Williamson has applied for a temporary restraining order against the Newton Lumber company, to prevent it from levying execution on a certain lot in the old Chautauqua grounds. The company alleges that Williamson is responsible for the lumber used in the construction of the Chautauqua buildings several years ago, since the property of the old company has been turned over to him. Williamson claims that there is a clause in the deed discharging him from future liability on the property. This case is the result of the attempt to found the Chautauqua assembly just east of the Garden of the Gods some years ago. When the attempt failed the promoters disposed of the land to Williamson.

In the district court yesterday Eunice F. Green was granted a divorce from George F. Green and was awarded the custody of their 8-year-old son. Cruelty was the ground for the decree.

Why Do Men DRINK?

When you stop to think of the terrible results which come to men who indulge in excess in intoxicating beverages, well may you ask, Why do men drink? The fact simply stated is "A victim of the drink habit can no more resist liquor than a man with ague can stop shivering." Drunkenness is a disease and must be treated as such. The wives and mothers of those who drink intoxicants will be glad to know there is a remedy which will restore their loved ones to lives of sobriety and usefulness. Many thousands of grateful women praise Orrine for its benefits. Orrine has been known to effect a cure after all other means failed.

Paxson & Rockefeller, 24 West Park St., Butte, Mont., tell about a case of drunkenness of 25 years' standing. Read what they say: "A gentleman well known to us, who has been a hard drinker for twenty-five years, stated he had been entirely cured by Orrine. We consider this a remarkable case, as this gentleman has been treated three different times at a well-known sanatorium. This and other cases that have come to our knowledge gives us confidence in your preparation, and it gives us pleasure to recommend it to those needing a reliable cure for intemperance."

Orrine is prepared in two forms. No. 1, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. Orrine No. 2, in pill form, is for those who wish to cure themselves. Orrine costs only $1 a box. The guarantee is in each box. Write for Free Orrine Booklet (mailed in plain sealed envelope) to Orrine Co., 419 Orrine building, Washington, D. C. Orrine is for sale in this city by the D. Y. Butcher Drug Co., corner Pikes Peak and Nevada avenues.

They know Orrine is a reliable and efficacious remedy for drunkenness and they will not offer you a substitute.

Intestinal Indigestion

A Form of Dyspepsia Usually Resulting From the Inability to Digest Starchy Foods.

There are a great many persons who are victims of what is known as intestinal indigestion, a disease which is due to the fact that the starchy foods are either partially digested or not digested at all, and the result of this trouble may be either an obstinate constipation or a persistent diarrhoea.

This inability to digest starch is called "amylaceous dyspepsia," a disease which is much in evidence. Americans are notoriously poor digesters of starch, and as starchy foods, such as potatoes, rice, bread, etc., are digested entirely in the small intestine, and not in the stomach proper, as is generally supposed, it can be readily seen how intestinal indigestion will usually produce diarrhoea.

In the small intestine the pancreatic juice acts upon the starches and ordinarily, in a state of health, possesses the power of converting them into grape sugar and dextrine. Starch must be so transformed before it can be of use to the animal being. Remaining as unchanged starch, it either passes through the alimentary canal, and proves a useless burden to the system, because it resists absorption, or it causes intestinal indigestion, the food products becoming acrid through putrefaction, which often sets up a catarrhal inflammation of the intestine, resulting in diarrhoea.

In a complaint of this character many persons use paregoric, Squibb's, bismuth and tannin to relieve the diarrhoea, all of these remedies being powerfully astringent, and they stop the trouble suddenly, "locking up" the morbid secretions, throwing the toxic intestinal poison back on the system, and often causing death through auto-intoxication.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS contain among other powerful digestives, a substance called diastase, which thoroughly digests every particle of starchy foods in the small intestine, and prevents the possibility of intestinal indigestion, no matter how excessive may be the amount of food eaten.

These tablets also contain calcium carbonate, which is a mild though effective sub-astringent, and which relieves and cures the diarrhoea by easy stages. It does not act with such suddenness as would cause poisoning of the system, but on the contrary, by its antiseptic properties, all toxins, intestinal germs and poisons always present in intestinal indigestion and diarrhoea, are destroyed.

Not only are the starches digested by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, but through the action of other ingredients they contain albuminous foods like meat and eggs are also digested. Thus they cure indigestion of any kind. Buy a package from your druggist today for 50 cents and send us your name and address for free sample package. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

PROPERTY IN DEMAND AT DELINQUENT TAX SALE

Four hundred pieces of property were sold by County Treasurer E. B. Simmons at the delinquent tax property sale Wednesday. That El Paso county real estate is highly valued by real estate men is shown by the fact that every piece of property was sold and not one was bid in by the county. The value of the property sold is estimated at $5,000, as against $8,000 last year. Among the purchasers are William Young, Pueblo; W. T. Lambert and H. H. Dawson, Denver; F. E. Dow, Green Mountain Falls; A. H. Shelton, Falcon, and Walter Whitmore, Eastonville; Frank W. Robert, W. W. Williamson, F. H. Dunnington, J. H. Gilfillan, E. J. Eaton, J. S. Dearing, P. H. Dodge, Charles Sharp, and Davis and Barney, all of this city.

GEO. KNOWLES GROCERY SALE DRAWS CROWDS

A special cut price announcement in yesterday's Gazette by George Knowles, the grocer, swamped him all day yesterday with orders. The public was quick to respond to cut prices on good clean groceries and provisions. The low prices will be in effect for today and tomorrow and offers an unusual opportunity for economical buyers to prepare for Thanksgiving and at the same time save money.

AGENT OF STEAMSHIP CO. TALKS ON SHIP SUBSIDY

R. S. Hair, traveling passenger agent for the French Compagnie Transatlantique, running steamers between New York and Havre, France, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Hair is much interested in the popular demand for a governmental ship subsidy, and believes that the present condition of the American merchant marine is due to the absolute lack of official protection, and to the ability of the foreign lines to offer lower rates through their subsidies.

"Three years ago our company built the steamer La Provence, with a governmental subsidy; a year ago we built the steamer Chicago in the same way, and we have the steamer La France about ready to launch. All of these ships have an ironclad government mail contract for more than the actual cost of the mail transportation, in return for which they are liable for service as cruisers in time of war. In short, we feel that we have better service than some of the American lines, because we are backed by our government."

United States land areas still unappropriated and unreserved in 1908 were 754,896,000 acres, of which 369,023,000 acres were in Alaska, 61,177,000 in Nevada, 46,532,000 in Montana, 44,778,000 in New Mexico and 42,765,000 in Arizona.

"THE TIME, THE PLACE AND THE GIRL"

It is scarcely necessary to go into details regarding the announcement of "The Time, the Place and the Girl," which H. H. Frazee takes pride in presenting at the Opera House tomorrow evening, for its success is famously well known in every section of the country. It is denominated by the press critics as the "Old Homestead" of musical comedy, and will be remembered it contains every element to satisfy the most censorious class of theatergoer. The plot is most presumable and fascinating, the [illegible] is ensnaring and the beauty [illegible], numbering half a hundred, are saturated with liveliness from begining to end.

H. H. Frazee, who presents "The Time, the Place and the Girl," is a firm believer in placing the prettiest girls in the most conspicuous places at the proper time to produce a counter irritant in the minds of those who think they are about to be disappointed. He believes that a song hit which can carry itself on its merits is quadrupled by the swaying of a group of unimpeachable broilers in the foreground of an array of well gowned show girls, and his experiences have taught him to pick winners in arranging his productions.

The young women who constitute this section of "The Time, the Place and the Girl," possess all these qualifications so necessary to please the eye and charm the ear. There are 10 musical numbers which are given additional color by the beauty of such girls in timely action.

RUSSIAN GIRL AT MAJESTIC AN ACCOMPLISHED ARTIST

A real musical treat at the Majestic this week is the violin playing of Armada, a clever Russian girl, who adds to her act the charm of pleasing personality and good dressing. The music is the thing, of course, but stage presence and appearance are a big element when it comes to the entertainment of cultured audiences such as the Majestic enjoys.

Mlle Armada is equally at home among the classics and the popular and homely melodies of the common people. Her rendition of Schumann's "Traumerei" is especially brilliant and appealing, and in Moscowski's "Serenade" she reveals magnificent technique and sympathetic interpretation. After hearing her in these selections one is suprised when the violinist turns to a medley of the sweetest airs of the south—"My Old Kentucky Home," "Maryland, My Maryland," "Way Down Upon the Suwanee River," and others, into which she puts all their matchless charm. A bit of ragtime that takes you off your feet is the final testimonial of her rare ability, which is a genuine treat to all lovers of good music, popular or classical.

"FIFTY MILES FROM BOSTON"

George M. Cohan's sweeping success, "Fifty Miles From Boston," with its host of comedians and pretty girls, will be presented by Messrs. Cohan and Harris at the Opera House on next Monday evening. The charming story of New England village life, typical with its well shaded characters from the village gossip to the town clown, is said to be given a stage picture of telling realism. The plot of the piece concerns the happiness of "Sadie Woods," the pretty postmistress of Brookfield, Mass., and the action revolves upon a postoffice theft committed by her brother. Under the influence of "Dave Harrigan," Sadie's rejected suitor, "Jed Woods" tampers with the postoffice money. Then there is Joe Westcott, the crack pitcher on the Harvard team, who is to marry Sadie. But in order to keep her brother out of jail, Dave Harrigan has proposed that if she give up Joe and marry him, he will replace the stolen money and save Jed from prison. The quarrel of the two boys' fathers, who take up the issue with their sons, relieves the dramatic suspense with flashes of Cohanesque humor. Among the song hits distributed throughout the action are "Waltz With Me," "Jack and Jill," "Harrigan," "Boys Who Fight the Flames," "My Small Town Gal," and "Ain't It Awful," all of which have become popular with the Cohan enthusiast. Messrs. Cohan and Harris, it is said, have provided a well selected cast and chorus, including Richard Bartlett, Grace King, Edward O'Connor, Frank Byoman, Daniel Bruce, Flossie Martin, Edwin Beldin, Laura Bennett, May Maurice, Helen Young and Bobby Wagner.

SHOVEL SNOW.

ALTHOUGH the heavy snow fell nearly a week ago, much of it still remains on the sidewalks. The snow plow scooped off part of it, and a few good citizens cleaned the remainder from their walks, but on most of the walks it was allowed to remain, to be tramped into a hard mass. Since then it has thawed during the day and frozen again at night so that after all the condition is almost as bad as it would be if the snow plow had never been brought into use.

There is a city ordinance which prohibits permitting snow to remain on the sidewalk under penalty of a fine, but now, as always, it is a dead letter. We don't suppose that anybody was ever fined in this town for leaving snow on the sidewalk. Fortunately, climatic conditions are such that the nuisance does not often occur, but nevertheless we are likely to have two or three heavy snowstorms each season similar to the one of last week, and this means that violation of the ordinance is attended by no little annoyance to pedestrians for fully a week after each one.

The warm weather of the last few days has melted the snow enough to make its removal from the sidewalks a very easy matter, but if it is permitted to remain it will continue to freeze and thaw alternately for perhaps a week longer. The better way is to clean the walks now and keep them clean.

FORTIFYING HAWAII.

ACCORDING to reports from Washington the Government has decided to fortify Pearl Harbor in Hawaii in such a way as to make it the foremost American naval base in the Pacific. Millions are to be spent on the project, and when completed it will be as nearly impregnable as engineering science and skill, backed by unlimited resources, can make it. Pearl Harbor is to be to America in the Pacific what Gibraltar is to Great Britain in the Mediterranean.

Military and naval experts have long been divided on the question of whether to create the principal naval base in Hawaii or in the Philippines. The Philippines are nearer the scene of a possible foreign war, but this advantage is partially offset by the corresponding fact that they are farther from the base of supplies in the United States. The chances are that eventually the United States will evacuate the Philippines, but this is not likely to come about for fifteen or twenty years at least, and when it does occur our Government is certain to retain a naval base permanently, as it did in Cuba.

ADVANTAGES OF PEARL HARBOR. A glance at the map shows the advantageous position of Hawaii for this purpose. The group is located almost in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, and the principal routes of trade center there. It is in a position to command the entire American coast and also the Panama Canal. In the event of war in the Pacific, especially with Japan, retention of its control would be vital to American success. If it fell into the hands of an enemy it could be used as a base from which to ravage our entire Pacific Coast, but without this advantage it would be a very hard matter to land a foreign force on American soil, because the distance to the next nearest base of supplies—Asia—would be too great.

The Government is now building an immense dry dock at Pearl Harbor which will be capable of receiving the largest battleship. This, with the fortifications and other improvements to be constructed, will make possible the retention in the Pacific of a large naval force. At present most of the navy yards and dry docks are on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts, and the facilities in the Pacific are too inadequate to serve such a fleet as the one that made the voyage around the world. There is really far more reason for keeping our principal naval strength in the Pacific than in the Atlantic, as the only Power with which there is any probability, however remote, of America going to war is Japan. For the good of both nations and of civilization it is to be hoped that this possibility will never be realized, but nevertheless it is well to be prepared.

COUNTY ROAD BUILDING.

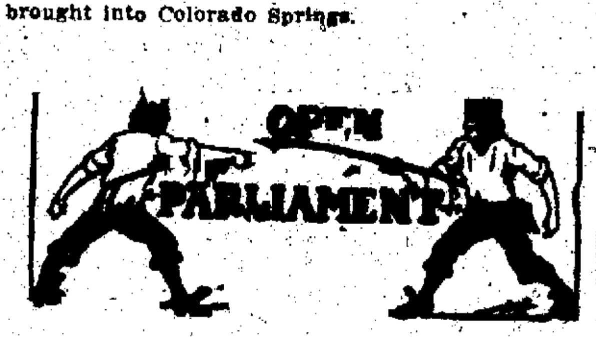
WE ARE indebted to Major Henry McAllister, Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, for a clear statement of the status of road building in and near El Paso County, printed in the Open Parliament today. From this statement it appears that the funds available for the construction of the Colorado Springs-Canon City road are less by several thousand dollars than has been supposed; also, that there is little likelihood of substantial improvements to the Denver road north of Palmer Lake unless the Commissioners of Douglas and Arapahoe counties show more interest in the matter than they have exhibited up to the present time.

The difficulty in getting enough money for the completion of the Canon City road arises from the fact that $5,000 of the total of $13,120 appropriated for this purpose is payable out of the general fund not otherwise appropriated, and Governor Shafroth has decided that this is a fifth-class appropriation. This means that the money will not be forthcoming for some time, and possibly not at all. The Legislature appropriated more money than is available, and fifth-class appropriations may never be reached. In this event work on the Colorado Springs-Canon City road must stop as soon as the balance of $8,120 is used up, and the remainder of the work could not be finished until after an additional appropriation had been obtained from the next Legislature.

It is a pity that the indifference of the Commissioners of Douglas and Arapahoe counties should delay an improvement so much needed as is the rebuilding of the road from Colorado Springs to Denver. A little more than $16,000 of state funds is available for this purpose, and the El Paso County Commissioners are willing to appropriate $6,000 for use on the portion of the road in El Paso County—that is, from this city to Palmer Lake—provided they can have the use of one-third of the state fund, which would make a total of between $10,000 and $11,000.

The road between Colorado Springs and Palmer Lake is probably used by more vehicles than any other in the county. In the last six months it has been considerably improved by building new bridges and cutting out dangerous curves, and for a short distance north of the city it has been surfaced with gravel. But a great deal remains to be done before it can be considered a really first-class road, and the expenditure of $10,000 would help materially.

By the death of Ransom R. Cable last week the world loses one of its notable figures. Born in 1834 in Athens county, Ohio, Mr. Cable as a young man became interested in the coal mining business in Rock Island, Illinois. In 1870 he entered the railroad service as president of the Rockford, Rock Island and St. Louis railroad, a line which was subsequently merged in that of the Rock Island system. From this time forward until his retirement about six years ago, Mr. Cable's association with the latter road was uninterrupted—as a director, as first assistant to the president, as vice president and general manager, and finally as president, a position he retained for eleven years, from 1887 to 1898. He is credited with doing more for the upbuilding of the system than any other one man connected with it, and was most influential in the directorate until the new management took charge in 1903. It was during his presidency and largely through his influence that the road was brought into Colorado Springs.



ROAD-BUILDING FUNDS.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

So many erroneous statements have been published respecting the construction of what are known as the state roads between Colorado Springs and Canon City and between Colorado Springs and Denver, that a clear and concise statement of facts seems necessary.

First, as to the former road: Senate bill No. 362, introduced by Senator Skinner, appropriated out of the improvement, permanent or income funds the sum of $4,120 and out of the general fund the sum of $5,000 for the construction and repair of a public highway from the city of Colorado Springs, via Penrose and Florence, to Canon City in Fremont county.

By house bill No. 472 by Mr. Bell, a second sum of $4,000 was appropriated, payable out of the improvement, permanent or income fund for the same purpose. The sums provided in these bills were to be expended by a board of construction, consisting of the state engineer, the chairman of the board of commissioners of El Paso and Fremont counties and the surveyors of the respective counties.

The $8,120 appropriated by these bills, payable out of the improvement, permanent and income funds, is available now and is being expended in the construction of the road by state convicts, as provided in the bills.

The appropriation of $5,000 by the Skinner bill is payable out of the general fund not otherwise appropriated, and as the Governor has decided that this is a fifth-class appropriation, it is not likely that it can be made available for some time. The available sum of $8,120 will not be sufficient to keep work going on until April next, when work will have to cease, unless help comes from some quarter not now discernible.

The status of the Colorado Springs and Denver road is this: The sixteenth general assembly, by Senate bill 288, appropriated $15,000 from the internal improvement fund to construct or aid in the construction of a road or boulevard from Denver to the mouth of the Platte canon. The sum was to be expended by a state board of construction, composed of the Governor, the state engineer, the mayor and the engineer of the city of Denver. But little work has been done, and little money expended on this road. The last legislature, by house bill 488, appropriated $2,000 from the general improvement fund for the construction of a road or boulevard from Denver to Colorado Springs, under the auspices of the same construction board. This board was authorized to add to this appropriation any unexpended balance of the former appropriation of $15,000. This made a little over $16,000 of state funds available for the construction of the Denver and Colorado Springs road. Work has not yet begun on this end of the road for the reason that the state board of construction has not been able thus far to get all the three counties sufficiently interested to co-operate with the state by making what the board regards as suitable appropriations to meet the state appropriation.

The commissioners of El Paso county are willing to expend the sum of $5,000, or even $6,000 between Colorado Springs and Palmer Lake, provided they can secure one-third of the available state appropriation. It is not wholly unlikely that this county can secure even more than this, as the other counties interested seem disinclined at the present time to appropriate the sum necessary to secure their share of the state appropriation. The latest interview between Commissioners Banta and Hutchinson of this county and the board of construction in Denver seems to indicate this.

WATERWAYS IMPROVEMENT.

From the Chicago Record-Herald.

It is evident that his idea is better entitled to be called up to date than that traditional American idea to which we have referred, and for proof of this we may glance at the experience of several European countries. Prussia is working out a scheme of water way improvements at an expense of more than $80,000,000. Austria-Hungary has well-developed plans that have been partly carried into effect and that involve an expenditure of $150,000,000. France is spending $50,000,000 on new development for the perfection of a system that has cost hundreds of millions. These countries all have railroads, but for canals and other waterways their doctrine is one of vigorous life and growth. They do not intend that a great promoter of national wealth, a great agency for the benefit of the people, shall be destroyed now or ever. And Americans should applaud their policy, especially after their varied experience with the underselling that is designed to create monopolies.

WHAT JUSTIFIES FERRER'S KILLING.

From the New York Tribune.

We can not believe that even the present reactionary government of Spain would be so fatuous and so wicked as deliberately to make a martyr to free thought and to put such a man as Mr. Ferrer to death for no other reason than his "modernism." If it had done so it would be guilty of one of the most foolish crimes and most criminal follies of the age. It must be that there were other reasons for its action. In that case, for its own sake and for the sake of humanity, it is to be hoped that it will speedily make those reasons known so clearly that the world will be convinced of their sufficiency and justice.

DON'T KNOW ST. LOUIS LIVE STOCK.

From the St. Louis Star.

Three hundred girls in the Kansas City high schools say they never saw a pig. Well, well, well. They ought to ride in a St. Louis street car and wear a "thank you" button.

THE TURNING WORM. Mary had a little hat, which hit her father hard; and when she went into a house, she left it in the yard. She wore it to a theater, which was a dirty shame; for no one else could see the stage when little Mary came. And so the usher got a hook and tied it to a mop, and climbed upon a fire escape and tried to reach the top. He vainly poked and reached and stretched, and climbed and clumb and clim, but could not reach across the vast expansive purple rim. And still the hat shed gobs of gloom upon the festive scene; men simply could not see the show behind the gauzy screen. "Why does she wear an acre lot, upon her empty head? Why not pare off a rod or two?" the angry people said. Then up spake Mary to the crowd, and thus she proudly cried: "I wear this on my head because, I've nothing much inside."

The Daily Chit-Chat

To be able to flatter gracefully is an accomplishment that comes in handy in most of the walks of life.

"Pooh, anyone can flatter," contributes somebody.

Yes, anyone can flatter, but not gracefully.

Flattery to be pretty must of course wear a mask and the average person doesn't know how to pay a compliment without labeling it flattery so obviously that it loses most of its value.

To be able to flatter with real subtleness takes practice, but here are a few suggestions which, if he will adopt them, will make the average person's attempts at flattery rather less crude.

Never flatter a woman who appears to have any common sense about some grace that common sense will tell her she does not possess.

For instance, never try to make a girl with obviously large feet think you admire her cunning little shoes.

Ten to one you'll find out she's sensible enough to be offended rather than pleased.

This rule doesn't hold with men, as most men have more capacious epiglotti in the matter of flattery and will very easily swallow a dose that a third person would call impossible.

The only time the average man ever admits to himself that he is wrong and a woman is right, is when some woman flatters him about a charm that he did not think he possessed.

If some woman, for instance, tells a narrow-chested, stoop-shouldered man that she admires his broad, manly shoulders, he will probably say to himself, "I guess I was mistaken in thinking I was narrow shouldered."

Don't on the other hand flatter people about their most obvious good qualities. They have probably heard those same compliments so many times before that they haven't a great deal of value. Pick out some less obvious good point and dilate on that and you will win yourself a warm corner in the coldest heart.

Quite frequently the very clever girl with the rather pretty face would a hundred times rather be told that she was pretty than that she was clever.

And very often the brilliant scholar or clever business man is more proud of his indifferent good success as a golf player than his business acumen or intellectual ability.

It is an axiom in the science of human nature that few of us are proud of the things we have most reason to be proud of. The skillful flatterer, being also a skillful student of human nature, knows this and builds on it.

One of the cleverest tricks of the good flatterer is to put a spice of disparagement in with his praise and thereby make the praise seem more genuine.

"If anyone asks my opinion of anything," said one of this ilk, "I always find fault with some small detail so that he will think my extravagant praise of the rest is truthful."

Of course, it's better never to flatter, but most of us find it expedient if not absolutely necessary to pay our respects to the blarney stone at times, and to quote from the precepts of copy-book days "What's worth doing at all is worth doing well."

Boston Brown Bread—Boston brown bread for luncheon may be prepared in less than the regulation time by steaming it in cups or quarter pound baking powder cans. Mix together one cupful of cornmeal, a half cupful each of rye meal and flour, a scant teaspoonful of salt and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Into this stir a half cupful of molasses and one cupful of water. Turn into the small molds and steam for an hour and a half.

Cream of Barley Soup—Wash one-half of a cupful of pearl barley, put in a saucepan, cover with cold water, heat quickly, boil for five minutes and drain. Cover with three pints of veal or chicken stock and simmer slowly until the barley is tender. Take from the fire, put aside two tablespoonfuls of the barley and rub the remainder through a puree sieve. Return to the saucepan with the whole barley which was set aside and one-half of a cupful of scalded cream. Should the soup be too thick add sufficient stock to reduce it to the proper consistence. Season and simmer for five minutes.

The snow may go—but just think of the snowless cold you'll have to buck in the winter not yet begun.

The warmth of a really good warm overcoat warms up the affections to the stocking point—a fellow just can't give it up "this winter." We have a fine lot of such winter overcoats here. You can pick out one at $25 or $35 that you'll grow fond of—be proud to wear winter after winter.

the capture of the steamer Dictator and evidences the intention of the insurrectionists to submit the matter eventually to a prize court. The dispatch says:

"The Norwegian steamer Dictator was captured during the night at San Juan Del Norte (Greytown), where she had arrived in order to transport Zelaya's troops to Bluefields for the purpose of capturing that place.

"The Norwegian owners of the steamer claim that the provisional government has no right to declare a blockade, but it will be observed by this capture that the blockade is efficient and therefore lawful. The case of the Dictator will be submitted in due form to a regularly constituted court before which the owners will be afforded full opportunity to present their side of the case."

Salvador Castrillo, agent of the Nicaraguan revolutionists in this country, is expected here tomorrow. In his absence it is not known whether the rebels are in extremities for ammunition, and supplies, as reported by way of New Orleans tonight.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 18.—A cable from Panama says:

Passengers arriving from Nicaragua today report that a reign of terror exists throughout the portion of that country controlled by President Zelaya. Government troops are rounding up every person suspected of sympathy with the revolutionists and executing them without trial.

More than 500 men suspected of revolutionary sympathies have been shot and still the bloody work continues.

Women relatives of revolutionary sympathizers have been subjected to indignities.

Nicaraguan refugees arrived on the isthmus and in Costa Rica declare that it is time for the civilized powers to forcibly intervene and put an end to such atrocities.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 18.—Leroy Cannon, reported shot in Nicaragua as a revolutionist, was a native of this city and was 29 years old. He had been living in Central America for eight years and in that time had been heard of half a dozen times as figuring in hazardous enterprises.

Cannon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel K. Cannon, received the first intimation of their son's fate from an Associated Press reporter this afternoon. Mrs. Cannon doubted the story, saying she had received a letter October 13, which stated that her son was returning to his plantation. She said that he had written about coming home after he was released from prison, but the letter told of a change of plans.

Cannon left the Harrisburg High school in 1898 and tried to enlist for the Spanish war. He failed and a few years later he turned up in Nicaragua as an engineer's assistant on the canal survey. He took a great interest in the frequent revolutions and finally left the service of the canal commission and threw his lot with one of the leaders. Three years ago he was accused of siding with a revolutionary party and had to leave the country. When his friends regained power he was with them and he wrote his father that he had property worth $30,000.

An effort will be made by the parents to have the body brought here for burial.

tional expenditures. A recent expert examination indicates that a saving of from 10 to 20 per cent of national expenses can be made and at the same time greater efficiency secured by an application of business methods to government work.

The President has repeatedly called the attention of the country to the urgency of amendments to the interstate commerce act and to the Sherman antitrust act, for the purpose of making this restrictive legislation effective in practical operation and at the same time relieving legitimate business from the uncertainties and disabilities that now surround them.

The national monetary commission has assigned to it an important work. A sound and adequate currency and a stable and efficient banking system are necessary for the continuance of our successful national development.

The legislative provisions to carry into effect the important reforms I have indicated should be submitted to the people for criticism and consideration at the earliest possible moment.

Senator Root vigorously advocated a federal subsidy for American ships.

The snowfall in Central Europe last winter broke all records for many years, Germany probably receiving the worst of it. For days at a time, following each big storm, the streets of Berlin were blocked to such an extent that the street department of the German capital was taxed to the limit. One snowstorm cost the city $8,000 to clear away, automobile snow plows and vans being used to a great extent in the work.

TERRORS SHOWING UP WELL FOR LAMAR CONTEST

The Terrors are still plugging away, perfecting the forward pass and other open plays, and hope to play the Lamar bunch off their feet in the very beginning of tomorrow's contest. Coach Richards had his eleven working well last night. The lads are given signal practice and coached on new plays every afternoon in the gymnasium.

Tomorrow's game is for the championship of the southern division of the Colorado Interscholastic league. Lamar is undisputed champion of the New Mexico class of the southern division, and the Terrors barely nosed out in Class A.

Affairs in the northern division are still in an uncertain state. East Denver, which lost to Manual, 0 to 3, last Saturday, has protested the game. The winner of the Denver class will meet Longmont, winner of the far northern class.

MONTROSE TEAM DISBANDS

MONTROSE, Nov. 18.—As a result of injuries received by several Montrose players in the game with Grand Junction High school last Saturday, the Montrose High school football team has been disbanded.

YALE FAVORITE OVER HARVARD; ODDS 5 TO 4

Rival Elevens Resting in Seclusion. Fish Is in Good Condition.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 18.—The rival football teams of Harvard and Yale rested quietly tonight some miles from the scene of next Saturday's encounter, with their hard-training days behind them and their championship honors still to be gained.

Within the stadium walls are seats for 38,000 persons, many of whom are already crowding into Boston, eager for what is generally expected to be the finest exhibition of modern football ever played in America. The custom of sending the two teams into comparative seclusion hours before the game was followed today, when Harvard journeyed down to the Norfolk Hunt club at Medfield, and Yale came up from New Haven to stay for a couple of days at Woodland Park hotel, at Auburndale.

The Yale men will probably take a trolley trip to the stadium tomorrow afternoon to become acquainted with the grounds. The Harvard team, led by Captain Fish, was given a great sendoff this afternoon. There were few limpers, and even Fish, who got a hard blow in the chest last Saturday, skipped about Harvard square in a style that belied the rumors that he would not be in the lineup.

Yale is not free from an injured list, and the right end position was said tonight to be in doubt. Yale is the favorite in the betting, although odds which earlier in the month stood at 8 to 3 have been scaled to 5 to 4.

INDOOR BASEBALL GAMES INTERESTING

The indoor baseball games at the Y. M. C. A. last night were characterised by close scores and snappy playing. In a hard fought game in which the Golden Cycles excelled in clean fielding, they defeated the South Ends 12 to 7. The Golden Cycle battery was J. Steninger and H. Steninger while that of the South Ends was Fitzpatrick and Shimwell. It was Shimwell's first appearance, and he gave a good account of himself.

In the second game the West Side team defeated the Strang eight, 12 to 8. The batteries were Fish and Nostrum, Stone and Lever, respectively. Despite the fact that the Strang team was without its regular pitcher, the game was very close.

The first game was in the Independent league, while the second was in the Commercial league.

Tomorrow night the Grammar School Bible Study league will have a second series of games, beginning at 7 o'clock. The festivities of the evening will be concluded with an exhibition indoor baseball game between the Twentieth Century team and that of the Garfield camp boys.

This will be the first time that a team of Deaf Mutes has played in Denver for several years, and a big crowd is expected to see the game. The Mutes average about 145 pounds, and make a creditable showing on the gridiron. All their signals are given in sign language.

WHITE'S INJURY NOT SERIOUS, SAY COLLEGE AUTHORITIES

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Reports that "Dad" White, Fordham university's star football player, had suffered injuries in the game last Saturday with Rensselaer which would make him a cripple for life were declared today by the university authorities to be entirely without foundation. White's injury, it was said, was nothing more than a sprained ankle.

WOLVERINES ARRIVE IN CAMP OF THE GOPHERS

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 18.—Coach Yost and the heavy Michigan football team arrived here today from Ann Arbor for their game with Minnesota Saturday. Yost took his team to the hippodrome, where the men were given a light work out. Yost said he had not decided on his lineup. Minnesota is the favorite in betting.

REFUSE TO PLAY D. U.

WM. FRICK BADLY HURT IN A FRIENDLY SCUFFLE

LIMA, O., Nov. 18.—William Frick, son of the late Jacob Frick and nephew of H. Clay Frick, steel magnate, is in a critcal condition at a hospital as the result of a scuffle last night in the apartments of a woman giving her name as Florence Adams of Toledo. The woman declared she and Frick were wrestling in a friendly way when both pressed against the window frame, which gave way, precipitating them to the pavement. Both of Frick's legs will have to be amputated.

INDICTED FOR BANK FRAUDS

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 18.—The federal grand jury today returned indictments against eight men, charged with embezzlement or complicity in embezzlements of funds of national banks.

William H. Marker and Noah Marker, brothers, formerly cashier and assistant cashier of the First National bank of Tipton, Ind., are charged with embezzling $100,000 and with having covered their abstractions by making false entries and reports.

Max P. Emmerich, a bookkeeper of the Capital National bank of Indianapolis, was indicted on the charge of embezzling $40,000.

The management of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad has ceased the practice of suspending operating employes for infractions of rules on the ground that such punishment is an ineffectual means of discipline.

WELLS FARGO EXPRESS CUTS A JUICY MELON

Company's Dividends Are Thrice Par Value of Outstanding Stock. Capital Is Trebled.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The strong tone of stocks today was not accompanied by animation in the speculation. The most striking incident of the day's news was the announcement of the "melon cutting" by the Wells-Fargo Express company. The maximum dividend distribution on this stock up to the present has been 10 per cent yearly, the advance to that rate representing a concession to demand of a clamorous minority of the stockholders. The high record price for the stock before the present year was 225. Today's announcement includes sales at 560.

The distribution amounts to three times the par value of the outstanding stock in cash, calling for $24,000,000, while the capital is increased to three fold at the same time and the increase is offered to present stockholders at par. The reinvestment of capital to be distributed might involve some injurious reason as to the direct profit accruing, but the effect is sufficiently brilliant to appeal to investment holders of all similarly situated corporations.

The collateral topic came up for discussion how far this action might anticipate possible inquisitorial activities by government authorities and legislators as to the conduct of an industry that yields such profits, especially in view of the contentions by the national authorities for the inclusion of the express companies as common carriers.

Various other high grade investment stocks rose buoyantly, especially those for which the possession of "concealed assets" is claimed. The anthracite carriers come within this range.

The coppers were revived to some extent and there were reports of some recent large sales of the metal, which were put forward, however, without official authority attached.

The issuance of the call for reports of condition of national banks at the close of business November 16 has been expected to relieve the banks from some constraint in granting accommodations which they have been under while awaiting this call.

The building up of the Bank of England reserve to 54.06 per cent gave a strong impression of the effectiveness of the recuperation of that institution. Foreign financial markets seemed somewhat depressed today however with the political complexion threatened by the rejection of the British budget.

There was another engagement of gold in New York for shipment to South America, raising the total outgo for the present banking week on that account to $4,400,000.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $3,292,000. U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

COVERING BY SHORTS SENDS WHEAT HIGHER

Considerable Activity Developed in Final Hour's Trading on the Chicago Board.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Belated covering by shorts caused a sharp rally in the wheat market here today and final figures showed net gains of ⅝ to 1⅛. Corn and oats closed steady and provisions irregular.

Despite the absence of any important bullish news, wheat was firm almost the entire day. Trading during much of the time, however, was inclined to drag owing to meager offerings, but in the final hour considerable activity developed, numerous smaller shorts becoming urgent bidders, which resulted in an advance of more than 1c from the low points for the leading options.

An advance of ⅝ pence at Liverpool, said to have been due partly to reports of labor disturbances at Buenos Ayres, and a much smaller movement in the northwest were the chief factors contributing to the advance here. A falling off in the total primary movement also had a bullish effect.

The range for the day on May trading in which option was the most active, was between $1.04½@1.04⅝ and $1.05¾. The market closed at the top with the exception of May, final figures on which were ⅛ below the best market.

An increased disposition by country dealers to sell corn and the continued slackness of demand for cash grain by eastern shippers had a depressing effect on the corn market, which was heavy a large part of the day. The late bulge in wheat, however, started covering by shorts which resulted in a firmer tone at the close. Final figures were up ⅛ compared with yesterday's close.

Trading in oats was exceedingly quiet and the market closed steady, a shade to ¼ higher.

Provisions closed 5@7½c lower to 20c higher.

GOULDS CONTROL MIDLAND

James J. Hill Dominates C. & S. Stockholders of Two Roads Elect Directors.

DENVER, Nov. 18.—Stockholders of both the Colorado and Southern and the Colorado Midland roads elected directors here today. The result showed James J. Hill to be still the controlling factor in the former road, while the Goulds appear to retain the dominant influence among the Midland directors, precluding, it is thought, the possibility of the Burlington using the Midland as a link in the chain of a new transcontinental line.

Directors elected.

Colorado and Southern—George B. Harris, George F. Baker, George F. Baker, Jr., Harry Bronner, W. P. Clough, Edwin Hawley, James J. Hill, James N. Hill, Darius Miller, E. T. Nichols, Samuel Thorne, Frank Trumbull and Daniel Willard.

Colorado Midland—George J. Gould, Edwin Gould, E. T. Jeffery, Winslow S. Pierce, Edwin Hawley, Harry Bronner, F. P. Clough, George B. Harris, Daniel Willard and Charles H. Schlacks.

J. H. Mackenzie resigned as general manager of the mine and J. R. Findlay was elected his successor.

PEGGY IS PRODUCING ORE OF GOOD GRADE

Lessees Operating Through Shaft at Anaconda—Ore Opened in Half Moon.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Nov. 18.—An 18-months lease has been secured by H. P. Relton, hardware merchant of this city, on the Peggy mine on Gold hill, owned by Humphreys and Thompson. Associated with Relton are Ralph Seaver and L. G. Henry. Operating at the 300-foot level of the main Peggy shaft, in the town of Anaconda, they are already breaking a good grade of ore, and will shortly commence to ship.

The Peggy shaft is 361 feet deep and two levels only have been turned, the first at the 300-foot point and the second at 360 feet. At the 300-foot level a flat vein was encountered by former lessees and at the intersection of the "flat" with a northerly fissure, ore was mined and shipped that returned values of from four to ten ounces gold to the ton. This ore occurred as calaverite or sylvanite carried in a fluorite vein, designated the Peggy vein.

The lessees have also secured a lease on that part of the Morning Glory claim adjoining the Peggy from the Work Mining and Milling company to be operated through the Peggy shaft. The royalties to be paid the owners of both properties leased will be graded.

Gibbs and associates who recently secured a lease on a block of the Half Moon mine on Gold hill, adjoining the Geneva and near to the Geneva shaft, have opened up a promising ore body, and their initial shipment of about 25 tons was loaded out, for consignment to the valley yesterday. The ore is estimated at about $30 grade and was mined from a new ore shoot on the Chance lode. The property is owned by the Matoa Gold Mining and Milling company, a corporation controlled by the Stratton estate.

Operations will be resumed on or about December 1 on the Friday claim on Tenderfoot hill by the Friday Mining company holding a bond and lease on the claim. The Friday adjoins the Hoosier mine, and the northern extension of the Hoosier main vein has been exposed in the workings of the new Friday shaft.

The Class of Patrons a Store Has is the Best Evidence of the Kind of Goods it Sells

We number among our regular customers the "first families" of this town.

Why? Simply because we carry the kind of goods discriminating people want—the choicest of everything.

Whatever you get here you can be sure has back of it the approval of men who know values in food stuffs, and who select from the thousands of brands the market offers, only such as are proved worthy of a place among the world's finest.

Such a brand is

a coffee of rare flavor—made so by handling the world's choicest crop in the one best way, from picking to packing, so as to produce a coffee of highest quality.

You'll like Electa whatever your taste in coffee—like it better than any other coffee you ever drank, because it is better.
